Upcoming Thespian Events

November 15-18 — Temple High Thespians will be traveling to Fort Worth to compete at the annual Texas State Thespian Festival. The best entries in each category will be advanced to the International Thespian Festival in Lincoln, Nebraska, in June 2008.

Temple's competitors include:

Monologue: Emily Kleypas with scenes from Romeo and Juliet and Agnes of God

Duet Acting: Chris Greene and Anthony Guillen with a scene from All My Sons

Solo Musical Theatre: Rachael Petersen singing "Good and Evil" from Jekyll and Hyde

Duet Musical Theatre: Megan Foster and Kayla Williams singing "What You Don't Know About Women" from City of Angels

Costume Design: Thumper Gosney with Tartuffe

Publicity Design: Alex Tolleson with Tartuffe

Scenic Design: Nathan Graham with Tartuffe

Temple High School Theatre Arts Director Natasha Tolleson has also been asked to conduct workshops on publicity at the convention.

November 19 & 20 — Open auditions for the musical Zombie Prom, which is a campy spoof of 1950s horror comic books. In the hallways of Enrico Fermi High, you'll meet many stereotypical characters from '50s doo-wop "rebel without a cause" drive-in teen flicks. These include a rebellious bad-boy, the good-girl who loves him, the school principal from hell, a smarmy tabloid editor, parents, students and more. Performances are February 7-10, 2008. A few rehearsals will occur before the holiday break, but most will be after the holidays.
